COMING NEXT WEEK—Charlie Chaplin in "Shoulder Arms."

Mrs. C. F. Loveland received a rather unusual Christmas present which just arrived a few days ago from her son-in-law in Indiana. The present consisted of four possums which were shipped here from a fur farm. Mrs. Loveland intends to keep them, at least until next year before killing them and having their furs made up.

ing of the state examinations in Civics. The examination will take place some time the latter part of next week.

Plans are being made by officials of the high school to offer classes at the beginning of the next six weeks term for students who have been absent a long time on account of the flu or who would like to make a half or a credit in those subjects. Among the possible classes are commercial law, correspondence, advanced arithmetic and geography.

Gladys Franklin returned Monday after suffering an attack of the flu. Vivian Stratton also returned then after being absent for several days due to illness.

Misses Mae Platt and Mayme Bengo and Mrs. Lucy Fox are now back at work again after absences due to illness.

Chas. Homan enrolled in the Junior class the first of the week after an absence of several months.

The girls of the gymnasium classes will play against each other in volleyball next Friday afternoon. A game has been arranged with Boise to take place in the near future.

Carroll and Ernestine Loeey are absent at the present with the flu but are expected to be back to school soon. Ella Gramme returned yesterday after a two weeks absence.

The furniture for the cozy "rest" room is being slowly collected now, but there are hopes that it will be ready for occupation in a week or two.

The Sophomore class held a skating party Tuesday evening in Fruitland. The most remarkable feature of the evening, however, was that there was no ice and another was the absence of the larger part of the class. Credit for the last can not be definitely placed altho suspicions are pointing strongly to members of a certain class as winners were seen on the street in the possession a certain member of the Senior class. But those cheerful Sophs, who reported an excellent hay rack ride.

Dwight Pierce, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Loveland, arrived home a few days ago from service overseas with an aero squadron.

Entertained in France.

Mrs. W. J. Pinney this week received a letter from a French merchant giving a brief account of a visit which William Pinney had made at the writer's home. The spirit manifested by the letter and the pleasure which the French family enjoyed in entertaining the young American soldier was evident. The letter is a cherished souvenir by Mr. and Mrs. Pinney.
